VOCABULARY RECITING EXERCISE

1.Tiny – Very small.
Example: She lives in a tiny house near the beach.

2. Fall apart – To break into pieces or stop working properly; it can also mean to lose emotional control.
Example: He fell apart when he heard the heartbreaking news.

3. Come across – To find or discover something by chance.
Example: I came across an interesting book while cleaning my room.

4. Soak – To make something completely wet by putting it in liquid.
Example: She soaked her clothes in water before washing them.

5. Drip – To fall in small drops of liquid.
Example: Water was dripping from the kitchen tap.

6.Nod – To move your head up and down to show agreement or understanding.
Example: He nodded his head to show that he understood the instructions.

7. Breathing heavily – Breathing quickly and deeply, usually because of physical effort or strong emotions.
Example: He was breathing heavily after running up the stairs.

8. A lump in someone's throat – A feeling in the throat that happens when someone is about to cry or feels strong emotions.
Example: I had a lump in my throat when I said goodbye to my best friend.

9. Disbelief – A feeling of being unable to believe something because it is surprising or shocking.
Example: She stared at the message in disbelief when she learned that she had won the competition.